

IV. International Masterclass for Organ

Liturgical improvisation practice & art of registration

With its two instruments and the new echo work (2015), the Hofkirche of Lucerne is one of the most impressive organ environments in Europe.

The master class is designed for advanced organists of all ages who hold a Bachelor's degree or equivalent qualification. In addition to individual and group lessons, participants are given ample time to play independently on the organs of the Hofkirche. On the last two days of the course, the participants perform the liturgical celebrations and a public final concert.
